APRIL 17 IS TO BE ARBOR DAY

Acting Governor Cox Selects
That Day—Makes Holidays For Schools.

Call For Planting of Many More Trees.

Frankfort, Ky., April 4.—The following Arbor day proclamation was issued last night by Acting Governor Cox:

"I, William H. Cox, Acting Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do designate Friday, April 17, as Arbor day.

"Tree-planting, as is well known, is the object for which this day was established and it is certainly an object that should inspire in itself interest on the part of every public-spirited citizen of this Commonwealth. Tree-planting is a valuable public improvement, as well as a beautifier. Its neglect by past generations, the devastation and destruction of numerous varieties in mountain forests, as well as of woodland for purposes of private gain, has alarmed the Government authorities, who are taking vigorous measures toward adopting practical methods of restoration.

I recommend that Arbor day be considered a holiday in all the schools, that the school authorities take this occasion to beautify the grounds about the school buildings by planting trees. The county school superintendents are respectfully requested to publish this proclamation throughout their respective counties, and to encourage the teachers to take an active interest in the day.

I invite the authorities of every city and town in the State to look into the tree question of their respective communities, and to take steps toward the proper observance of the day.

Done at the executive office this first day of April, nineteen hundred and eight.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Commonwealth."

"WILLIAM H. COX,

Acting Governor.

"Attest: BEN L. BRUNER, Secretary of State."

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

FIELD NOTES.

What The Night Riders Are Doing in Kentucky.

A Paducah dispatch says "Henry Bennett, who was whipped by night riders at Dycusburg and shot through the ear, says he will move to Tennessee, as he has been repeatedly warned by night riders that he must leave or be killed. They fear his testimony, as he says only one man was masked, and he compelled one boy to confess to being in the raid. Bennett said the night riders' password was 'Blow out the lamp.' He is a cousin of Vaughan Bennett, who was killed by a posse near Clarksville, Tenn."

Clark county has been singularly free from the troubles that have grown out of the tobacco situation, but last night a band of night riders visited the residence of Aquilla Thomas, a tenant on the farm of Mrs. Lizzie Gay, and tore up his tobacco beds, rolling the canvas up and throwing it into the road. Will Keen and James Terry, tenants on the farm of Will Sphar, assistant cashier of the Winchester bank, were also visited and letters left warning them to take the covers from their beds and abandon them or they would be visited again.

Itch! Itch! Itch!—Scratch! Scratch!
Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

Bennett's Walk-over.

Delegates to the Ninth district Republican convention were elected, and instructions were given in all thirteen counties for the renomaination of Congressman J. B. Bennett.
